Nigel Farage

Dear Britain, do you worry that Team Farage is just a hot mess in power? Or is everyone too angry to care
| Marina Hyde

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 21 Oct 2025 12:50:23 GMT

Footage of Reform councillors fighting is further proof that uselessness abounds, but that's almost moot. To voters they are very useful idiots "I'm meant to be on bloody holiday this week, Paul! I don't want to be having this meeting!" There is much to enjoy about the patriotic revolution in government promised by the

Nigel Farage has 1.3m followers on TikTok. Does this mean gen Z likes him? | Zoe Williams

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 21 Oct 2025 10:00:32 GMT

He is the most popular UK politician on one of the world's most popular social media sites. Working out what that means is actually surprisingly difficult There's a famous clip that still does the rounds on social media, which is weird, because it's Russia Today, hardly regular viewing, it happened in 2017, a fairly lo

Ed Miliband's new green jobs will bring Britain hope. I dare Reform to denounce them | Polly Toynbee

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 21 Oct 2025 05:00:33 GMT

While Nigel Farage promotes retro plans to reopen coalmines, will he really tell thousands of clean energy workers to leave their well-paid, local jobs? This government is bad at proclaiming what it's for. But to find out, follow the money. Its boldest investment is in green energy, designed to create prodigious return

The Tories set a tax trap and Rachel Reeves walked straight into it. It may be her defining mistake | Chris Mullin

Guardian (Politics) · Tue, 21 Oct 2025 07:00:35 GMT

By taking Jeremy Hunt's NI cuts and ruling out other rises, Labour tried to out-Tory the Tories. And made a bad situation worse Keir Starmer and Rachel Reeves have only themselves to blame for the mess they are in over tax. The key moment was not the defenestration of their welfare bill or the uprising over pensioners'
