Keir Starmer

Some people have a choice about whether or not to vote Labour. I wish I did too | Polly Hudson

Guardian (Politics) · Sun, 05 Oct 2025 04:00:24 GMT

I'm disillusioned with Keir Starmer's government. But my late father's passion for his political career makes it difficult to imagine putting my cross in another box. With hindsight, perhaps my expectations were slightly too high. When Labour won the 2024 election I thought the whole country was going to live happily ev

After Starmer claimed his party has finally woken up to concerns over the impact of mass migration, how I know Labour has never wanted to tackle the migrant crisis... and never will

As Keir Starmer twists and turns over Labour's record on immigration, remember it is in the party's DNA to throw open the borders, lie about the impact and then smear their critics as bigots.
