[The Guardian] Can Nigel Farage emulate success enjoyed by Italy's far-right Giorgia Meloni?

Sun, 09 Nov 2025 13:00:32 GMT

Reform's leader may hope to tread a similar path to Italy's prime minister, but she is an experienced parliamentarian open to collaboration and compromise One of the more striking images from June's G7 summit showed a small group of world leaders engaged in an impromptu and informal evening chat at the venue's restaura

[The Guardian] Welcome to 21st-century politics: a bitter revolt against power that will consume Labour and the Tories | John Harris

Sun, 09 Nov 2025 12:00:35 GMT

A mood of turbulence and insurgency against the two main parties has been building for years – and could claim new victims Westminster has a habit of staging occasions that are at once both lacklustre and ridiculous, and last Tuesday saw yet another one. Rachel Reeves's speech , we were told, was an act of “pitch-rolli
